MATRIMONIAL.

—Miss Henrietta Taylor, of near Paris, and Mr. Elliott Ford, of Frankfort, were quietly married at Lexington Wednesday, at the home of the officiating minister, Elder I. J. Spencer. The marriage was in the nature of an elopement and the announcement was quite a surprise to both kinsmen and friends, as the secret had been well kept. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Taylor, of near this city, and is one of Bourbon's most attractive and popular young girls. Mr. Ford is a successful young lumber dealer of Frankfort but is now making his home in Lexington. They left after the ceremony for Louisville and will return to Lexington the last of the week.

—Elder Carey E. Morgan united in marriage Tuesday, Mrs. Maria Peck and Mr. Hice Mitchell.

—Judge and Mrs. Joseph Bertram, of Monticello, Ky., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Josephine, to Mr. W. Houston Argabrite, son of Rev. G. W. Argabrite, of Georgetown, formerly of Paris. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents at Monticello on Wednesday Dec. 15. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. G. W. Argabrite assisted by Rev. Kimble, pastor of the Monticello Baptist church.

Monetary Commission.

The National Monetary Commission has just completed and made public the tabulated results of an investigation of the condition of all classes of incorporated banks, the reports being made invariably upon a uniform blank and all as of the close of business on April 28, 1909. An enormous and important mass of information has thus been brought within the reach of the financial world.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

Several cases were disposed of in the Bourbon Circuit Court Tuesday, besides Judge Bagby hearing several arguments in equity cases.

The trial of the case of H. V. Thompson vs. W. P. Fisher, resulted in a verdict of $250 for the plaintiff. Hugh Rogers, the negro, who robbed J. C. Gatewood's store, was given a sentence of two years in the penitentiary.

Will Leer the noted young criminal negro charged with forgery was given ten years in the penitentiary at hard labor. Another case, charged with robbery, the jury gave him ten years, making twenty years that this "undesirable" citizen will spend in Frankfort, much to the gratification of the citizens of this community.

Wm. Leer is only twenty years of age, but has led a life of crime and is a dangerous criminal. At the age of 14 he was sent to the reform school for arson, having set fire to more than a dozen stables and small buildings in the city just for the purpose, as expressed by him, of seeing them burn. Upon his return from the institution of reform he was sent to the penitentiary for robbing the seed store of J. S. Wilson. He had been here less than three months when he was again convicted and returned to Frankfort for a second term.

Last summer he forged a check on Superintendent Cottingham, of the Paris Distilling Company, and was arrested by officer Ben Bishop but made his escape. He returned to Paris and waylaid Davis Hutchcraft and relieved him of $7.50. He was landed in jail and at the first opportunity knocked Turnkey Kiser on the head, relieved him of the keys to the jail and liberated other prisoners. Leer was captured at Latonia and since his last incarceration has occupied the strong cell in the county bastille.

He plead guilty in both of the above cases and was given the limit in each case.

Special Judge C. C. Bagby has extended the term of the Circuit Court till Thursday December 23. The morning session Wednesday was almost entirely consumed in the hearing of motions and arguments and several important suits were advanced on the docket and may be heard by jury trial before the term closes.

The Prescott will case which was set for trial Wednesday was passed. The contestants are represented by Chas. A. McMillan, Col. Robert B. Franklin and Talbott and Whitley while the propounders are represented by E. M. Dickson and Judge Denis Dundon.

Judge Bagby resumed consideration of the criminal docket the murder case of W. H. Lucas being called. The defendant through his attorneys, E. M. Dickson and John J. Williams filed an affidavit setting forth the testimony of William Dailey, who was with the defendant at the time of the tragedy, which was objected to by Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. Franklin. Judge Bagby passed the case till Friday, December 17, and upon motion of Mr. Williams the court will hear arguments Saturday upon the question of granting the defendant bail.

In the case of M. C. Dumphy, a negro accused of malicious cutting the verdict of the jury was one year in the penitentiary.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Davis Washington, another negro, charged with cutting Henry Brown, resulted in a verdict of one year in the penitentiary, with a recommendation that the negro be sent to the Reform School.

After motion hour yesterday morning the case of Joseph Barton's Executrix vs. Virgil Barton was called for trial and the case entered into. The plaintiff is represented by Talbott & Whitley and McMillan & Franklin and the defendant by E. M. Dickson and Morgan & Darragh, of Carlisle.
